2 Rab.I, 1446 AH
Vol. 18/ #35

Rabi-ul-Awwal is a month of great significance for Muslims worldwide. However, it's important to acknowledge the ongoing historical debate about whether this month truly marks the birth of the Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him).

Despite the uncertainty surrounding the exact date, the prevailing belief among Muslims is that Rabi-ul-Awwal commemorates the birth of the Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him). This period is a time for Muslims to express their deep love and admiration for the final messenger of Islam.

emphasize the oneness of God, the importance of worship, and the promotion of peace and justice. Muslims are encouraged to study his sayings (Hadith) and the Quran during this month to deepen their understanding of Islam.

Regardless of the debate over the exact birth date, Rabi-ul-Awwal holds profound spiritual significance for Muslims. It is a time to gather, reflect on the Prophet’s teachings, and recommit to the core values of Islam—love, compassion, justice, and unity. Whether the precise date is known or not, Rabi-ul-Awwal serves as a powerful reminder of the timeless message of the Prophet and the lasting impact of his life and teachings on millions of people across the world.
