22 Shawwal, 1447 AH

Vol. 21/ #15

Shawwal: A Month of Continuity

As we enter the month of Shawwal, we leave behind Ramadan, a time of reflection, discipline, and spiritual growth, but its purpose does not end with Eid.

Shawwal reminds us to carry forward the habits we built: consistent prayer, patience, generosity, and a stronger connection with Allah.

with six days in Shawwal will receive the reward of fasting the entire year, a powerful way to continue the momentum of Ramadan.

Shawwal is also a time for gratitude and reflection. Have we held onto the changes we worked so hard to build? Are we more mindful, more compassionate, and more consistent in our faith?

As a community, the unity we experienced during Ramadan, through gatherings, prayer, and acts of charity, should not fade. Let us continue to support one another and stay connected beyond this blessed season.

May Allah accept our efforts, grant us consistency, and allow us to witness many more Ramadans in good health and faith.

Eid Mubarak, and may the spirit of Ramadan remain with us throughout the year.
